

the war, and will act as water carriers. The presence of a number of these dummies will be a feature of the parade which will be both appropriate and appreciated. Like the veterans, the white-headed negroes who took care of the camps are also growing old, and will attend but few more reunions.

To Give Reception.
Richmond and Chesterfield Chapters, Daughters of the Confederacy, will give an informal reception to the visitors on Wednesday evening, May 22nd, from 8:30 to 11 o'clock, in Lee Camp Hall. Visitors are expected to go to the hall immediately upon their arrival. No formal invitations have been issued, but members of local Confederate organizations are requested to wear their reunion badges as carous of admission.

Delegates to the Confederate Southern Memorial Association and representatives from various local organizations are to be tendered a luncheon on Friday, May 31st, in the parlors of the Second Baptist Church. At the reception on Friday, May 31st, from 5 to 7 P. M., the reception committee will include Mrs. Joseph Bryan, Mrs. Alfred Gray, Mrs. G. W. P. Brock, Mrs. J. Taylor, Mrs. S. T. Hughes, Mrs. W. M. Massie, Miss Isoline Moses, Miss Rose Goldenberg, and the regents of the several State rooms.

At the luncheon to be given Saturday afternoon, June 1st, at 1:30 P. M., in Lee Camp Soldiers' Home, the guests will include presidents and officers of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, presidents of State divisions, representatives of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association, and regents of the Confederate Museum.

The official sponsors will be given a ball on the floor of the Lions Show building, Friday evening, May 31st. Camp sponsors are requested to notify Mr. Taylor Stratton, so that invitations may be sent them.

The vice-regents of the Confederate Museum are requested to take their respective regents to the Jefferson Hotel on Monday, June 3rd, when carriages to convey them to the Jefferson Davis Monument unveiling will be provided.

A bureau of information for the Daughters of the Confederacy will be at Murphy's Hotel, in charge of Mrs. Thomas S. Beacock. The Confederate Southern Memorial Association will have their headquarters at the Jefferson Hotel, in charge of the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association.

Urges City to Decorate With Red and White Colors of the Confederacy.

An important and largely attended meeting of the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association was held yesterday afternoon in Lee Camp Hall. Arrangements were completed for the bureau of information that is to be maintained by the members of this association at the Jefferson Hotel during the reunion. Committees were appointed for each hour of each day. It is believed that this will be a valuable adjunct to the work of the reunion committees, as the large number of visitors in the city will be largely strangers.

Miss Bessie Seldon was appointed in charge of the pages who will serve during the sessions of the Confederate Memorial Association at its meetings during the reunion.

Announcement was also made as to the sessions of this gathering, which is composed of representatives of all the memorial associations in the South. Mrs. William Behan, of White Castle, La., is the president, and has charge of preparing the full program, which has not yet been completed. The gathering will assemble, however, on May 29th, at 10 A. M., and continue in session for several days, the sessions being held at the Second Baptist Church, corner of Adams and Franklin Streets.

The members of the Junior Hollywood Association request all the school-children of the city to gather wild flowers for use on Memorial Day, and to bring them to the office at Hollywood gate about 9 A. M. on May 30th, where a committee will be in charge to see to their proper distribution.

The Junior Hollywoods passed a resolution requesting a general decoration of the city, by making all persons to use red and white, the colors of the Confederacy, as much as possible, as being more appropriate under the circumstances.

Reunion Fund.

Richmond Lodge, No. 45, B. P. O. E., last night appropriated $25 to the reunion fund. In the list of contributions yesterday morning, Mr. E. C. Laird was recorded as having given $1. This was an error. Mr. Laird's contribution was $10.

Elderly Man Held for Alleged Abduction Discharged at State's Request.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STANBURY, Va., May 22.—S. E. Hausenfuck, who was arrested at Lynchburg, Va., on a warrant sworn out by J. W. Randolph, of Shenandoah county, charged with the abduction of his daughter, Mamie, aged nineteen, arrested in the magistrate's court at called the Commonwealth, as the evidence was not sufficient for conviction. Hausenfuck asked that he was assisting the young lady to reach her lover at Somerset, Va., so they could be married. Hausenfuck was released.

"Berry's for Clothes"

--the distinguishing sort.

Any elderly man who has been a success himself, will tell you the most important outfit to a young man is personal appearance.

Young Rockefeller wears to business a dark sack suit—it produces the same effect as any of our $25 suits.

J. P. Morgan generally wears a frock of walking coat—we have similar garments at $22, $25 and $30.

Young Vanderbilt, they say, has thirty-eight business suits, still he can't wear but one at a time, and from $12.50 to $30 here you can present the same various smart dress effects.

Everything else to round out a perfect Summer outfit—for man or boy.

SPEAKERS PRAISE

THOUGHT OF PEACE

The Lake Mohonk Conference

Begins With Many Strong

Addresses.

LAKE MOHONK, N. Y., May 22.—The Lake Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration opened its thirteenth annual session to-day. The election of officers was the first business on the program. The following were elected:

President, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, New York; Secretary to the Conference, Clinton R. Woodruff, Philadelphia; Permanent Corresponding Secretary, H. C. Phillips, Mohonk Lake, Camden, N. J.; Auditors, Dexter Hunter, Jacksonville, Fla.; Eugene Levering, Baltimore.

President Butler delivered an address in opening the conference, in which he advocated that the question of disarmament be avoided at this conference, but the restriction of the growth of great armies and navies urged. He also suggested some recommendations for the coming conference at The Hague.

The present status of the international arbitration movement was the subject of an address delivered by Benjamin F. Trueblood, secretary of the American Peace Society.

Dr. Trueblood's Address.
The movement in whose behalf we have gathered again has reached a stage of peculiar interest. It contains features which may well draw the attention of all those who labor and watch for the permanent peace of the world. The movement in some respects seems to have reached a practical stage. No additional treaties of arbitration are now being negotiated. Nations in pairs have been concluded since we met last May. Nor has any advance been made at Washington toward the removal of the disagreement between the President and the Senate, which led to the failure of the treaty signed by the late Secretary Hay. Again, the Hague Court has not had any controversies referred to it within the year. Even outside of the Hague Court there has been almost nothing in the way of arbitration.

It would seem, then, at first sight, that arbitration, which has been so prevalent in recent years, is going to of fashion and is to fall again into disuse. But such a suggestion is as far as possible from being a true interpretation of the situation. The Hague Court, it is true, has had no new business, but the reason is that there have been no disputes of importance between the parties which are parties to it. To arbitrate disputes is an excellent thing, but it is a still "more excellent way" so to live as not to have quarrels.

From another point of view also the cause of arbitration reveals its growing importance. All of the nations, in whatever field, which are laboring for its success, have increased and renewed their efforts during the past year. They are insisting with voice that the scope of the Hague Court shall be extended so as to include all the nations, and powers immense so far as may be necessary to make it a real international court of justice; that the arbitration treaties already in force shall be supplemented, or rather supplanted, by a general treaty of arbitration to be concluded by all the nations acting together, and many of them so far as to insist that there are no disputes today between governments which may not be honorably settled by a world tribunal of their own creation. The general demand of the enlightened public opinion of the world is the supreme guarantee that the course of the arbitration movement is to be in the future, but upward and onward to complete victory.

What I have said of arbitration specifically is only a part of the whole group of measures, of which arbitration is only one, which have been put forward by this conference, the International Union, the Peace Congress, the Peace Societies, the National Peace Congress, and numberless chambers of commerce, business organizations and societies and clubs of every description. It is now generally acknowledged that the Hague Court is only a part of a world system, all of whose departments must be promoted together, if any one of them is to have complete success.

How to Add Strength.
The arbitration movement will be greatly strengthened if all unoffending private property shall be exempt from capture at sea in time of war. Our movement will also be powerfully reinforced if the Hague Conference itself shall hereafter be made a permanent, periodic body, as it is proposed that the coming conference shall recommend that the next conference be held in 1908, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1909, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1910, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1911, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1912, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1913, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1914, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1915, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1916, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1917, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1918, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1919, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1920, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1921, and so on, and that the coming conference shall be held in 1922, and so on, and that the coming
